

Handspringers Attend National Competition

Jackie Webb (right) and Jennifer Lloyd competed in the National Tumbling competition in Las Vegas. Jackie finished in 13th place and Jennifer finished in 8th place.

The Heber Handspringers recently had two of its tumblers travel to Las Vegas to compete in the National Competition.

Jennifer Lloyd, 8 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Lloyd did a great job. She was going against 20 other 8 and under girls for the National Title. Jenny placed 8th after two power tumbling passes.

Thursday, June 21, 1984

Jackie Webb, 9 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Webb was competing in the 9-10 year old age group. She had 26 girls to go against. The going was tough!

Most of the girls in her age group had been to nationals at least once before.

Jackie finished in 13th place. The girls did a fantastic job for the first year of going advanced.

The Heber Handspringers, the Lloyd's and the Webb's would like to thank our many sponsors.

Thanks to Radio Shack for donating the girls entrance fees. To Webb Trans. and Lloyd Bros. Const. for donating the girls new leotards and competing uniforms.

thanks also to Wasatch Auto for transportation money, Pizza Time for letting us sell pizzas. Our other sponsors were Accuracy Machinery, Tri-Valley, Coleman's, Taco Time, Dr. Kraig Ford, Miller's Gas, Glade's Variety, Giovanni's, Dr. Tregaskis, Finn's, Joby Sweat of On Top of It All, Big O Tires, Walker Ford, Palace Drug, Pizza Hut, Green Acres, Dairy Keen, Granny's, Wasatch Video, Brent C. Hill, Hilton Sports.

The team is working hard for next year. We hope to have more make it to nationals. Anyone wishing to watch the team work out are welcome to stop by anytime Monday or Wednesday, 9:00-10:30. We are located bet-

Todd Wall of Heber City is greeted in Washington D.C., by Carol Irvine (right) of Gaithersburg, MD, National Vice President of the Future Farmers of America. Todd Wall is attending the week-long National FFA Washington Conference program.

WASHINGTON, D.C. -- Todd Wall of the Wasatch Future Farmers of America is attending the 1984 Washington Conference Program in our nation's capital.

The week-long program helps FFA members improve leadership skills, develop an understanding of national heritage, and prepare for more effective leadership roles in their chapters and communities. Sessions on human relations, goal setting, and personal communications develop these skills. Personal outlook, motivation, and pride are also discussed.

Visits to Mount Vernon, the Smithsonian Institution, Arlington

Legion Service Officer Here on July 11

American Legion's Department Service Officer, Dave Parkinson, who will be traveling for the Veterans Outreach Program to assist veterans and their dependents with VA Benefits, will be at the Heber City Job Service, July 11, 1984, from 9:00 to 10:00 a.m.

Chidester Graduates From the U of U

Faun Chidester

SALT LAKE—The University of Utah presented degrees to more than 1,200 students at commencement exercises in Salt Lake City.

Faun M. Chidester, of Heber City, was honored, receiving her also received her Masters from the Utah State University, and a bachelor's degree at the Brigham Young University.

She was also nominated by the graduate school of social work faculty for the Blanche Schowcroft Willey Award for 1) creativity in class and field work 2) Leadership among peers and in community 3) Ability to visualize and suggest productive changes in curriculum 4) Research proficiency and interest 5) Scholastic ability.

She is presently employed as an intern, at the University of Utah Counseling Center, in Salt Lake. She plans to continue clinical training in substance abuse and in marriage and family with an emphasis on therapeutic and group work, combined with community and clinic administration.

"My field placements one at the

ounty

Men's Golf Ass